

§ 1801.10

Public service means employment in: governments at any level, the uniformed services, public interest organizations, non-governmental research and/or educational organizations, and non-profit organizations such as those whose primary purposes are to help needy or disadvantaged persons or to protect the environment.

Resident means a person who has legal residence in the State, recognized under State law. If a question arises concerning the State of residence, the Foundation determines, for the purposes of this program of which State the person is a resident, taking into account place of registration to vote, parent's place of residence, and eligibility for "in-State" tuition rates at public institutions of higher education.

Scholar means a person who has been selected by the Foundation as a Truman Scholar, has accepted the Scholarship and agreed to the conditions of the award, and is eligible for Scholarship stipend(s).

Senior means the academic level recognized by the institution of higher education as being in the last year of study before receiving a baccalaureate degree.

Sophomore means the academic level recognized by the institution of higher education as having second year standing.

Term means the period which the institution of higher education uses to divide its academic year; Semester, trimester, or quarter.

Subpart B—Nominations

§ 1801.10 Nomination by institution of higher education.

To be considered in the competition a student must be nominated by the institution of higher education that he or she attends.

§ 1801.11 Annual nomination.

(a) Except as provided in §§ 1801.11(b), 1801.12, and 1801.24, each institution of higher education may nominate up to three students annually. Each nominee may have legal residence in the same State as the institution or in a different State.

(b) The Foundation may announce each year in its Bulletin of Information

45 CFR Ch. XVIII (10–1–99 Edition)

special circumstances under which each institution may nominate one or more additional candidates.

(c) To nominate a student for the competition, the President of the institution or the designated Faculty Representative must send the student's application to the Foundation in accordance with §§ 1801.16 and 1801.17.

§ 1801.12 Institutions with more than one campus.

If an institution of higher education has more than one component separately listed in the current edition of the Directory of Postsecondary Institutions published by the U.S. Department of Education, each may nominate up to three students. However, a component that is organized solely for administrative purposes and has no students may not nominate a student.

§ 1801.13 Two-year institutions.

If an institution of higher education does not offer education beyond the sophomore level, the institution may nominate only students who have completed their sophomore year and have become full-time juniors at other accredited institutions of higher education. The Faculty Representatives at the two-year institutions must forward the nomination materials to the President or the Faculty Representative of the four-year institution attended by the nominee in sufficient time for certification that the nominee is a full-time student with junior-level academic standing and for transmission of the nominations materials of transfer students to the Foundation by the closing date for receipt of nominations.

§ 1801.15 Faculty representative.

(a) Each institution which nominates a student must give the Foundation the name, business address, and business telephone number of a member of the faculty who will serve as liaison between the institution and the Foundation.

(b) It is the role of this Faculty Representative to publicize the Truman Scholarship on campus, solicit recommendations of potential nominees
